Open questions—

1. What’s the tightest “squeeze” you’ve ever been in (literally or figuratively)? What’s the worst example of being “stuck between a rock and a hard place” you know of?

Dig questions—

1. Let’s review—how is the Bible laid out up to this point? Can you tell of important parts of the Bible throughout the Old Testament?

2. What is the “inter-testamental period? How long does it last?

3. What are some famous and impactful events that occur in this span of history, in Israel and elsewhere?

4. How does all of this lead up to the coming of Jesus? What parts of it actually made it easier for Him to come?

Reflect Questions—

1. What if where you lived were run by foreigners who ruled over you, took away your freedoms, especially your religious rights—how would you handle it?

2. Where do you find your hope for life? What carries you through each day?
